SAND Eva F Dewalker

In a wonderful seaside village where the beauty of past things is not dampened by modernity, Emma arrives. Eva F Dewalker, a family friend who has recently passed away, left all her belongings to her, on one condition: Emma should execute part of her will. Playing a sort of treasure hunt, and following the instructions contained in Eva's writings, Emma will discover the secret that makes the beach magic, on the trail of the Captain, a legendary seaman who "could paint the colour of instants" and who, besides his paintings, has left something eternal to the world.

In a charming place, where everyone can recognize the beach of one's heart, on Gian's beach resort veranda, a chorus of intriguing characters act: Emma, videomaker, Deiva, her host, Aileen, a blonde translator, Radu, the new doctor of the village, Sandro, globetrotter and documentarist, and many others. A sea sentimental comedy with the tint of a modern fairytale, romantic, sparkling and moving, on the magic and on the implacable force of love and desire, throughout time and space, and even beyond the frontiers of earthly life. Even a chance to taste or recall the wonderful atmosphere and beauty of Italian landscapes.
