This book creates new emotions and challenges for Sarantos. The race is on to not only save Yarrowtopia but to conquer his own personal fears. Can he put aside his natural instinct to protect Leigh while fulfilling the needs of the squad on their mission? This book offers more adventure as each character balances friendship with the need to find that perfect someone to share their lives, all while trying to save their world. The author moves through this book with a fierce look into the way we abuse our own ecological world while flipping the pages into another world that greedily does the same, but their key to survival is a little bit different. They demand the sacrifice of humans! The creatures known as the Metalists are a persona of destruction and need—both are motivated by their own greed. Similar to humans? Meanwhile, Leigh focuses on helping others and leaves her love, Sarantos, on his own combating an evil greater than any he has ever witnessed. He believes he must become a Metalist in order to save his friends and overcome his own weakness. Will he succeed? Only time will tell. As the end of the world approaches, will Sarantos be able to come to the aid of his friends when they are trapped in the great halls of the Metalists King? He may be all that stands between them and death! Can the thoughts of Leigh rise up in his heart long enough to offer him the strength he needs to step up and face life... and death within the time frame of one heartbeat? Or will he falter and cause the destruction of Yarrowtopia and possibly other worlds? Follow along on their journey into mystical caves, and travel back in time to change the course of history while discovering and solving the mysteries that history left behind! Can they change history or had they already done that?? Then join the group of friends in a fight to the death for all humankind, as they plot against the Metalists using their own strengths to combat such a violent and selfish race. The music plays on and the wind blows in the sails of Sarantos, as he achieves more for himself on a personal level than he ever thought possible. Does the wind ring with wedding bells, or is that just the death toll sounding off in the distance? Read Close Your Eyes with your eyes and heart wide open and when you're done, you'll see how much magic will find you once you Close Your Eyes and breathe!
