América Latina y el mundo que viene: Columnas del Diario Clarin de España (Spanish Edition) Lagos Escobar Ricardo

Desde fines de 2006, el ex presidente de Chile Ricardo Lagos ha escrito una columna mensual en el diario Clarín, de Buenos Aires, sobre la situación de América Latina. Muchos de estos artículos nacieron motivados por la contingencia -la asunción de Barack Obama, la crisis económica internacional, el quiebre de la democracia en Honduras, el cambio climático, entre otros-, pero sobre todo siempre con la idea de perfilar nuevos desafíos para este joven continente. América Latina y el mundo que viene, un libro revelador en todas sus aristas, descubre un continente que ha tenido un sinfín de dificultades, que incluso en ocasiones ha sido omitido del mapa mundial, pero que no obstante ha logrado construir sólidas democracias, economías pujantes y un consenso en torno al desarrollo como una meta común.

Así, Ricardo Lagos vaticina un futuro lleno de oportunidades: «En diez años más esperemos saber que América Latina siguió avanzando con buena marcha, con sociedades más sólidas y la pobreza en franca retirada. Las lecciones de la década que termina nos ilustran por dónde ir.»
