Feminist Catholic Theological Ethics: Conversations in the World Church (Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church Book Series #2) Linda Hogan, A.E. Orobator

The growing body of feminist literature in the late 20th and early 21st centuries demonstrates the phenomenal advances of feminist thought and movements in the context of church and society.

Characteristic of this growth is the re-location of issues from the global North, and broadening of focus to include voices from the global South.

In the context of globalization new vistas and voices are emerging that trace new directions and seek to rephrase the central questions in the feminist discourse. This volume aims to highlight the changing face and color of feminist theological discourse, recognize innovative research in the field, and facilitate a global conversation among feminists engaged in theological ethics in the world church.
