Leah Holst has a thing for green. So when she looks into Connor Breckwohld's emerald-green eyes for the first time, she knows she'll never be able to look away.

It seems that she's cast a spell on him, too: all it takes is just one kiss to spark an all-consuming passion. But even as their undeniable attraction pulls them toward each other, troubling discoveries—and long-hidden secrets—threaten to tear the new couple apart. And when Connor is seriously injured—and loses his memory—the obstacles they face grow even more daunting. Can Leah save their blossoming love from so much adversity? Or will they be forced to let go of their dream of happily ever after?
