Since 1975, the women's conferences held annually on the campus of Brigham Young University have uplifted, instructed and encouraged the women of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Thousands flock to BYU each year to attend in person, and literally thousands more can, as of recent years, watch selected talks on satellite broadcasts. The Best of Women's Conference is a landmark anthology of dozens of the most memorable addresses presented at women's conferences over two-and-a-half decades. A must-have collection created especially to celebrate the year 2000 and the silver anniversary of women's conference, this commemorative volume will be a significant addition to any home library.
