El desafío de la voluntad. Trece meses cruciales en la historia argentina (Spanish Edition) Roberto Lavagna

La crisis económica, social y política que atravesó nuestro país en diciembre de 2001 fue la mayor desde 1890: el derrumbe del modelo de la convertibilidad desencadenó decisiones impopulares, el «corralito», cinco presidentes en diez días, «cacerolazos», pobreza, desbordes sociales y un grito unívoco: «Que se vayan todos». El tránsito del caos a la recuperación fue una obra colectiva y un desafío: el desafío de la voluntad de toda una sociedad y de un gobierno para superar la emergencia y salir del pozo.

Sobre la base de anotaciones personales, archivos y datos estadísticos, el autor registra hechos de repercusión pública y acontecimientos privados de los que fue protagonista. No se trata de una memoria, sino de un registro documental de uno de los momentos más difíciles de nuestra historia.
