Blood trickled down her face, streaming into her mouth, as she gagged from the copper taste. Her breath came in short, while she blinked feverishly, trying to restore her sight.

Then she heard Dario yell her name.

Oh no, he came back for me. They will kill him!

The wars ended years earlier. The people of Esaki pulled themselves together and learned to enjoy life again, despite their dwindled population.

Malkia became leader of her town, not by choice but by the calling of God. She lived in a state of peace and turned to her source whenever she felt a need of strength. However, danger was coming their way and it was time to face the reality of their situation.

Malkia and her people travel through their broken world to escape the savages coming their way and learn more about their world, their lives and their true circumstances throughout their journey.

Life is not what it seems and as their eyes begin to open to the truth, the world as they know it crumbles beneath their feet.
