William Blake (French Edition) Osbert Burdett

Figure majeure du mouvement romantique, le britannique William Blake (1757-1827) fut à la fois peintre, dessinateur, graveur et poète. L'artiste s'attachant à illustrer lui-même son Œuvre littéraire, les textes de Blake se développent suivant les lignes de ses gravures et dessins hallucinés, et deviennent, dès lors, de véritables enluminures. Inspiré des thèmes bibliques et prophétiques (Proverbes de l'Enfer, L'Évangile éternel, Les Portes du Paradis, etc.), l'art de Blake mélange subtilement la modernité de son époque et de la révolution romantique au classicisme des thèmes qu'il explore. Doté d'un imaginaire et d'une originalité sans égal, l'artiste joua de la diversité des médiums afin d'extérioriser, au mieux, les démons qui le hantaient et de plonger, ainsi, le spectateur ou le lecteur dans une profonde mélancolie. C'est toute la vie et l'art de cet artiste incontournable, qu'Osbert Burdett met en lumière au fil des pages de cette monographie.
