Porciones individuales (Spanish Edition) Rodolfo Martínez

Porciones individuales recoge los mejores relatos cortos de Rodolfo Martínez. Relatos de fantasía, de ciencia ficción y relatos que transitan por un camino indefinido entre ambos géneros, todos ellos con el toque personal de Martínez, todos imbuidos de sus obsesiones personales y su gusto por el mestizaje literario.

Parte de este material apareció en revistas y publicaciones amateurs en los años noventa. Parte ha sido recogido en otras antologías. Y parte de él es inédito. Porciones individuales intenta ser, así, un muestrario equilibrado de la narrativa breve de Martínez:

Intruso: Un narrador llega a un pueblo primitivo y se integra en él. Aunque no del todo.

Hombres de césped: Todos los días ella cruzaba el parque, paraguas en ristre, defendiéndose de una amenaza que nadie más veía.

Con dados marcados: Una máquina del tiempo. Una organización que intenta impedir los cambios en la realidad. Un hombre empeñado en alterarla.

Marcado tres veces: ¿Y si el anticristo fuera un anodino electricista de una ciudad vecina?

Eterno retorno: Atrapado para siempre en el mismo momento del tiempo, repitiendo una y otra vez la misma situación que sólo puede acabar en el desastre.

Todo fluye: Te despiertas. Una y otra vez. Siempre en tu habitación. Pero nunca en ella.

Tarot: Un hombre apuesta sus sueños en una partida de póquer con cartas de Tarot.

Victoria Pírrica: A veces obtienes lo que deseas... pero no como querías.

Aquí, allí, en todas partes: La historia de una obsesión que se termina convirtiéndose en una maldición.

Piensa lo que quieras: ¿Y si pudieras leer las mentes e influir sobre ellas?

En territorio ajeno: Un predador encuentra algo que no es una presa en una ciudad ajena.

Encerrada: Una mujer encerrada en una peculiar institución.

El infierno está donde cuelgas el sombrero: Un hotel en mitad de un desierto y hombre que llega allí sin saber cómo.
