Werewolf's Treasure (Big City Pack, Book Three) Marisa Chenery

Book three in the Big City Pack series. Treasure never dates clients. A rule that ensures repeat business in the real estate market. But when her sexy-as-all-get-out buyer hinges his offer of purchase on her willingness to have dinner with him, she wavers. If ever there was a reason to look the other way, this was it. The fact she can't wait to see what wicked things he'll do to her body is just an added bonus. Soren hoped to secure a primo home when he arranged to view a penthouse. He didn't expect to be taken to his knees by the scent of his would-be mate. Being in close proximity has his wolf clawing to get to her. Or get on her. He's not picky. But it's tricky with these mortals. Soren must find a way to let her know about his furry side without sending her screaming into the outskirts of Toronto. His mating urge will push his control to the limits—especially when Treasure takes every opportunity to get him to go all the way.
