Trust the Night Sara Saint John

Bullets won't bring down this killer. It'll take a vampire.

Having survived a violent husband, homicide detective Beth Andrews has no patience for abusers. In her eyes, "Mad Jack" is committing the ultimate abuse against the women of Oklahoma City—murder—and she'll stop at nothing to bring him to justice. Even risk her own life.

The sexy "mind scientist" she's been paired with is a distraction she doesn't need, but he's getting under her skin in more ways than one. She spends her days investigating the murders. Nights, discovering Sam.

Criminal psychologist Sam Jordan knows he is two things Beth doesn't trust: a shrink, and a man. But Beth needs his help more than she knows, because like the killer they hunt, Sam is a vampire. And he's been pursuing Jack the Ripper for longer than Beth's been alive.

Revealing himself would do more than destroy her fragile trust. It could make her Mad Jack's next target.
