Hablar en público: 1 (Spanish Edition) Luis Puchol Moreno

No importa si usted tiene que dirigir se a una audiencia para venderles un cachivache doméstico, solicitar su voto para un candidato, presentar un proyecto de reforma de un edificio, dar una conferencia sobre un tema cultural, pronunciar la lección inaugural del curso académico, dar la despedida en el transcurso de una cena homenaje a un directivo que se jubila, presentar una comunicación o ponencia en un congreso profesional, luchar por persuadir a los asistentes a un mitin político o sindical para que le otorguen su voto a una lista determinada, impartir una sesión en un curso de formación dirigido a los nuevos empleados. En todos los casos anteriormente citados, y en otros muchos que usted mismo puede agregar a la lista nos encontramos con unos rasgos comunes a todos ellos. Usted es la persona que tiene que dirigir la palabra; usted se enfrenta a una audiencia cautiva compuesta por un número variable de personas; para ello usted ha preparado una charla, conferencia, demostración, presentación o como quiera usted llamarle. Con su charla usted pretende varias cosas: quedar bien, ser escuchado, ser comprendido e influir sobre el comportamiento futuro de la audiencia. Este libro le ayudará a preparar, y a pronunciar charlas efectivas, así como a elaborar y a utilizar el más moderno y eficaz material audiovisual de apoyo. Estas enseñanzas le servirán fundamentalmente para dirigirse oralmente e influir sobre una audiencia cautiva, pero también le serán útiles para otro tipo de situaciones, como pueden ser: Tener que improvisar unas palabras tras una cena de negocios; hablar convincente y persuasivamente a una o varias personas, en situaciones tales como una venta, formular o atender una reclamación, intentar persuadir a una agente de tráfico (o a un inspector de Hacienda!) de que realmente no hemos cometido la falta que nos achaca, y en otras variadas interacciones personales.
