Poesía reunida (Spanish Edition) Philip Larkin

Compilación de la poesía esencial de Philip Larkin, el gran poeta inglés de la segunda mitad del siglo XX.

«No acabo de entender a esos tipos que van de universidad en universidad dando charlas y contando cómo escriben sus poemas: es como ir por ahí contándole a todo el mundo como le haces el amor a tu mujer.»

Philip Larkin

Philip Larkin es uno de los poetas capitales del siglo XX. Su tono mordaz y convencional, su mirada inclemente, donde se refleja una emoción honda pero siempre contenida, así como su espíritu urbano, su peculiar sentido del humor y su capacidad para detectar miserias de la sociedad contemporánea, le han convertido en uno de los poetas más leídos de todos los tiempos, favorito incluso de lectores poco habituados a la poesía.

En este volumen se reúne, por primera vez en castellano, el cuerpo esencial de la poesía de Larkin, desde Engaños, el primer libro en que dominó su voz, pasando por Las bodas del Pentecostés y Ventanas altas, quizá sus dos obras maestras, hasta algunos poemas finales y dispersos, como el estremecedor «Albada», una de las despedidas más lúcidas que jamás se han escrito.
