Five strangers walk into the Red Lion Pub in the village of Moorefield. A night of suspense, terror and murder begins. Their leader is a man known as The Custodian. Mesmerising, intelligent and chillingly cruel, as his true identity unravels, the Police and Intelligence Services struggle to come to terms with what they are facing. He locks horns with DCS Clive Harper of British Counter Terrorism Command, who gathers an experienced team of professionals around him. Using advanced technology and brilliant psychological profiling they set in motion a plan, and a race against time to bring the inhabitants of the pub out, alive. A captivating story that takes you across many borders and surprising locations, with an array of fascinating characters from the beautiful, troubled Meyer and heroic Sebastian, to the depths of humanity held at Britain's most dangerous prison. It explores religious extremes, terrorism and the very nature of love and faith. The first in a series, this book has it all. Crime. Suspense. Mystery. A thriller with an emotional punch; a page-turner where the shocks and twists lead you to a breathtaking finale. You will never forget The Custodian.
