El poder narco: Drogas, inseguridad y violencia en la Argentina (Spanish Edition) Sergio Berensztein Eugenio Burzaco

El poder narco es la amenaza de gobernabilidad más significativa que enfrenta el país en muchísimo tiempo. Este libro lo analiza con mucho más rigor y profundidad del que ese poder desearía.

Lo que aquí se devela es más que la producción, el tráfico y el consumo de drogas en sí mismos. Es una trama de intereses en la que se juega si la Argentina se convierte o no en un narco-estado capaz de modificar para siempre nuestra forma de vida, poner en riesgo nuestra seguridad y naturalizar la violencia.

A partir del análisis de casos resonantes que tuvieron impacto mediático, este libro desmenuza cada uno de los complejos aspectos del avance del poder narco y va más allá: no se contenta con el diagnóstico; propone soluciones.

Defensores de la idea de un Estado democrático, eficaz y eficiente que estimule la participación inteligente de la sociedad civil, Burzaco y Berensztein repasan críticamente los aprendizajes de la experiencia internacional, abogan por el diseño de políticas públicas informadas, consistentes e integrales y -tal vez lo más importante- ofrecen argumentos sólidos para vigorizar un debate impostergable en la esfera pública.
